SIMVENTIONS CUTS RIBBON FOR NEW SPACE IN WASHINGTON D.C. AT WEWORK FACILITY

Washington, D.C., 09-25-2019: On Tuesday, September 24th, 2019, SimVentions cut the ribbon for their new office space at WeWork's building on 80 M Street SE in Washington, D.C.! The office at WeWork makes it SimVentions' fourth location, after our Fredericksburg, King George, and Virginia Beach locations. SimVentions' President and CEO, Larry Root, was excited to have the ribbon cut on this new space by those SimVentions employees who will be working out of this office.

Larry said, "We often refer to ourselves here at SimVentions as simply a group of patriots who are focused on serving our warfighters to ensure that they can effectively and safely fight for the interests of our great Nation, both here at home and around the globe. We are honored to serve God and Country in this way and having an office in our Nation's Capital keeps this at the forefront. The SimVentions team serving from this office is made up of an amazing group of talented and committed engineers that are making a difference in our Nation's warfighting capabilities, and for that we are very proud! It is hard to believe how blessed we have been over the 19 years we have been in business and we owe it all to the Hand of Providence and our employees, families, and customers for their continual support and trust in SimVentions. We can't wait to see how our vision will grow in the next few years with our new space!"
